The Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation Announces New Chairman and New Board Member

Both Giusto and Coon are parents of pediatric cancer survivors and know firsthand the anguish of a pediatric cancer diagnosis, and the miracles that can come from focused research. The Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation (PCRF) is honored to appoint Steve Giusto as Chairman of the Board of Directors and pleased to welcome the addition of John Coon to its Board of Directors. Both bring expertise in fields that will support the organization's mission to give every child a cancer-free future. As a corporate executive, Giusto has been a transformational leader of consulting, staffing and education companies. Coon brings over 10 years of professional experience in the financial services industry.

PCRF identifies and invests in leading edge research that promises the best hope for a cure to childhood cancer. To get involved or learn more, visit: www.pcrf-kids.org.
