

Policies and procedures

- Beginning with the 2019 Grant application cycle PCRPF will require the submission of a Letter of Intent (LOI).
- Researchers not previously funded by the foundation are typically funded at the Emerging Investigator Fellowship level.
- PCRPF typically only funds one grant per institution.
- Selected researchers will be invited to submit a grant application via Proposal Central. The deadline to submit is May 31, 2019.

Please take these policies and procedures into account when planning your submission.

Letter of Intent Guidelines

Page limitation:

The Letter of Intent (LOI) should be no more than three pages in length (not including biosketch).

Institutional information:

Provide the name of the Institution and Principal Investigator and their title.

Grant application:

Indicate which funding opportunity you are applying for:

- Basic Research Science Grant (up to $250,000 per year, for three years)
- Translational Research Grant (up to $100,000 per year, for up to two years)
- Emerging Investigator Fellowship (up to $50,000 per year for one year)

Research project:

Provide a Scientific and Lay Abstract

Provide a summary of your research proposal, including any preliminary data that supports the hypothesis being tested or the objective.

How does this proposal fit the goals and objectives of PCRPF?

What need/issue are you addressing?

Why is your approach novel?

What outcomes do you hope to achieve?

Why are you and your institution the best equipped to carry out this activity?

Include Principal Investigators biosketch with submission.

Budget:

State the amount of funding you are requesting.

SUBMISSION PROCESS

PCRPF will accept LOI between January 2, 2019 and March 1, 2019. LOIs should be submitted via email as a PDF document to admin@PCRPF-kids.org.
